The opening of right door that can reverse neurodegenerative disorders

Why is the brain so authoritarian and not acknowledging to the assistance or support that reaches him to reverse the situations?

Prime facie there could be two explanations as follows?

Brain doesn't comprehend the idioms of treatment sent to him through allopathic science?

Or

The method is incorrectly applied or introduced? Let's try to understand it going into deeper. Our body never born in laboratory so research or remedy that's preparing drugs in the laboratory is hopeless

The existence of Spirit in the body and only clue that reveals through the manners brain functions. It's beyond human's cleverness that, the average brain is around 15 centimeters long but how does it function?

Let's walk little dipper to find out further?

Isn't our body is identically a huge country made of billions of live cells, that's every day die and born on?

The constitution of physical existence of the body is managed, ruled by the Brain like the Prime Minister of this huge country.

However, Brain has his assistants too and that's exactly where the problems start about neurodegenerative disorders.

Let's name the assistants of the Brain, The Mind, The Thought process, All 5 senses, Sight, Sound, Smell, Taste, and Touch/ How the Human brain Receives Sensory Information from these assistants?

The world of the Brain is infinite and very difficult to determine by another brain of human?

Many times, it plays games in Human existence. Is it Brains very mischievous or its soul plays it like musical instruments?

That's exactly how my presentation going to explain, the distinct corridor to enter into core of the infinite world of Brain?

I vowed I won't speak like just another researcher for allopathic solutions but a signature truth that was never told?

Biography

Nazim Sattar Padvekar is Senior Scientist engaged into International Research, Analysis and designer. So far he has visited more than 50 countries of the world and his researches into Carbon negative zero energy housing concepts, Carbon negative bridges, highways and cities are widely acknowledged. His expertise in designing renewable energy specifically solar power utilities has astonished many. Diving deep into solar energy he has uncovered Anti-Cancer hope oncology immunotherapy and therapy to cure neurodegenerative diseases that can cure Alzheimer dementia, Parkinson and many brain disorders. His communication in the world of human brain is jaw dropping and he firmly believes laboratory born medication are hopeless to reverse brain disorders.
