

Brief interview with Dr. Eef Hogervorst (Editor)

Journal of Alzheimer's Disease & Parkinsonism

1. How many years have you been associated with the current research?

Over 20 years

2. What is the research topic you are working on now?

Dementia, diagnostics and risk factors

3. What are attributes for a quality article?

Clarity, brevity, good English, logical analyses and excellent research methodology

4. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?

We have joint funding from NIHR and other research councils as well as from the British Council

5. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?

2 years ago

6. Where can the journal find the maximum scope in terms of niche?

To allow a breath of articles

7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?

Becoming a Professor at 36

8. How does the published scientific content assist the potential researchers?

It is essential to know what was done before and which questions remain

9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?

To ensure that good quality research is published

10. Do you have any patents?

We are in the process of patenting a natural Alzheimer's treatment

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

Yes several on exercise and education

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the next year?

Yes the turn-over and distribution via open access is excellent

13. How would you define your experience with OMICS Group?

Very good, very professional

14. Your opinion on conducting Editorial Board meetings at related Conferences?

That would be fine

15. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

See 12.

16. How do you differentiate Journal of Alzheimer's Disease & Parkinsonism with other journals in the field?

It is very good in the field