I am pleased to introduce Fisheries and Livestock Production Journal (JFLP), is a rapid peer reviewed Journal and is one of the leading peer-reviewed journals supporting rapid publication forum. With advancements in the technology, Journal of Fisheries & Livestock Production focuses on maintaining their role in the balance of species and habitats in the ecosystem. This journal is Open Access which aims to publish most complete and reliable source of information on the discoveries and current developments in the mode of original articles, review articles, case reports, short communications, etc. in all areas of the field and making them freely available through online without any restrictions or any other subscriptions to researchers worldwide. Journal of Fisheries & Livestock Production publishes the current research activities in this growing field of Fisheries & Livestock. I am pleased to announce that, all issues of volume 7 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online during the year of 2020.

Journal of Fisheries & Livestock Production -Open Access gives barrier-free access to the literature for research. It increases convenience, reach, and retrieval power. Free online literature is available for software that facilitates full-text searching, indexing, mining, summarizing, translating, querying, linking, recommending, alerting, "mash-ups" and other forms of processing and analysis. Journal of Fisheries & Livestock Production -Open Access puts rich and poor on an equal footing for these key resources and eliminates the need for permissions to reproduce and distribute content. JFLP impact factor for the year 2018 was 0.3.12. Recent statistics shows that Open Access publishing is generating 1.4 million articles annually, the estimated rate of this annual growth of Open Access model is around 3% to 3.5% every year. The increasing trust of academicians is rising consistently at the rate of 3% each year. During the calendar year 2019 16 articles were published, a total of two Editors, seven Reviewers joined the board of JFLP and contributed their valuable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles, and their valuable reviewer comments will beneficial to publish quality of article in the Journal. I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of our reviewers for their exceptional support during the peer review process and the managing editor during the final editing of articles published and the support, in bringing out issues of JFLP in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of JFLP the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of JFLP and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 8 of JFLP in scheduled time.
