Global Toxicology 2018 is prerogative to thank the Organizing Committee Members, Keynote speakers, Chair and Co-chairs on transcribing the plenary sessions and workshops in a diversified and variegated manner to make this Toxicology conference an enviable artefact.

With the grand success of Global Toxicology 2018 we are glad to announce our next upcoming conference “19th International Conference on Global Toxicology and Risk Assessment” which is going to be held in Madrid, Spain during November 05-06, 2020.

These events cover wide range of critically important sessions that deals with the current research development in the field of Toxicology, Pharmacology, Healthcare and Hospital management and, about the new treatment methods which are forging by scientists to treat various diseases in easier way. These conferences act as a best platform for attendees to learn about the recent trends in Toxicology studies.

We hope this lays a good platform to share your best Toxicology practice initiative, scientific research, or provide continuing education because it relates current topics and advances round the industries and field of research. Global Toxicology 2020 provides participants with breakout sessions highlighting research studies, clinical projects and education. The conference on Toxicology has engaging interactive presentations, and keynote panel discussions with key policymakers and experts in Toxicology and Pharmacology.

The Global marketplace for In-Vitro Toxicology testing market has been estimated to be USD nearly 11billion in 2014 and its projected to achieve above USD 18.5billion by the highest of 2020 at a CAGR of 9.7-9.8% during the forecast period from 2014-2020. Inclusion of in-vitro toxicology has started a replacement era in biopharmaceutical research. It's considered one of the foremost significant steps in drug discovery and formulation. The in-vitro toxicology will improve the tactic of quality of drugs entering clinical studies.
