Ediorial note

Welcome to the Second issue of Optometry: Open Access Journal in 2020. Hope this year marks a milestone in the history of the journal because it comes with some very interesting and informative manuscripts within scope of journal. To get best advantage out of this development, we encourage more types of articles asides, regular research, review or commentary articles we are also planning to publish video article, which is bit interesting. This will help us in scoring high in performance measures and moving up in journal ranking lists. Wehave also Planned to release special issue on the pandemic coronaviurs. We endeavour to release excellent manuscripts, as a preferred content article always gains a potential impact on the readers, so we would like to publish your renowned articles and we are positive that your contribution will definitely help in emerging new concepts to the readers and emerging researchers. Though our journal has a long history and it continues to improve with time, we cannot really ignore the importance ascribed to the ranking exercises. All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of RefSeek, Hamdard University, EBSCO A-Z. All published articles are permanently archived and available in the official website. Along with indexings, the journl has 2476-2075 International Standard Serial Number and also have NLM ID: 101735046. We try our level best to release the most exciting research with respect to the subjects of Optometry (i.e Behavioural Optometry, Clinical Optometry, Experimental Optometry, Eye Care Optometry, Eye

Design Optometry, Eye to Eye Optometry, Image Optometry, Modern Eye Optometry, Opticians, Communications Optometry, Case Reports Optometry, Equipment Market Analysis ExercisesOptometry, Management Software Optometry, Practice Optometry, Vision Science, Paediatric Optometry, Visual Eyes Optometry) and to provide a rapid turn-around time regarding reviewing and publishing, and to disseminate the articles freely for research, teaching and reference purposes. We will further discuss new ideas and strategies to increase processing, releasing rate of the articles and gives us scope to include more articles in a year. It is time to have a glance at the journal as truly international and continue to assiduous to help the journal in climbing up the ranking ladder with great number of informative and within scope manuscripts. We should find better manuscripts that explore and analyse novel thoughts and innovation in this field of Optometry. Research directions, original articles that can create deep interest in the readership of the journal and content that the researchers do not want to miss. It requires a lot of exertions of the Editor to do this assessment, the role of Editor comes with a great responsibility than power. The decisions may leave some of the authors unhappy, but this is inevitable to shape up the journal into what we are aspiring for. I thank the entire editorial board and reviewers for all their support. My warm reception to the newbie of the Editorial Board of the journal. Together we would work towards making Optometry: open access a truly influential publication. Comments, suggestions and special issue proposals are always embraced.
