DESCRIPTION

Oral Hygiene and Health (JOHH) is the act of keeping one's mouth perfect and liberated from sickness and different issues by ordinary brushing of the teeth and cleaning between the teeth. It is noteworthy that oral hygiene be done regularly to empower evasion of dental sickness as well as terrible breath. The most widely recognized kinds of dental illness are tooth caries (holes and dental rot) and gum sicknesses, including gum disease, as well as periodontitis. JOHH has effectively distributed its ninth volume and delivered 5 issues during mid of 2021 with no deferral. I'm satisfied to make reference that we are going to deliver new issue (volume 9, issue 6) before the finish of July 2021. Our Journals Index-Copernicus value is 84.15 along with the impact factor of 0.72*. Also, our Journal has both NLM just as International standard chronic number (ISSN) individually, where NLM ID is 101647653 and ISSN is 2332-0702. JOHH comprise a few article individuals from different topographical regions. In excess of 60 very much perceived experts were going about as publication board advisory group all through the globe. In excess of 160 articles in the method of audit, research articles, short correspondences, case reports, smaller than expected surveys, and so on were submitted. Acknowledgment or dismissal of article will be educated to writer in the range of 21 to 30 days of early accommodation while the aftereffect of primer quality check will be supported in 24 to 48 hours of the accommodation. JOHH has offered whatsapp contact number and referenced it in diary landing page for simple comprehension of creator's questions to the publication board individuals or article support. Audit following and publication global positioning framework has been acquainted to follow the submitted composition by the creators, distributors, and editors separately. Creators and supervisor can without much of a stretch track the situation with their submitted compositions by utilizing diary certifications gave to the creator during the accommodation time. JOHH has made a decent attempt to acquire quality articles pertinent to dental points which incorporate plaque, gum diseases, gum dying, dental fillings, Endodontic and some more. Up to the center of 2021, JOHH has decided to use web-based media stage like twitter just as connected in to have simple and amicable correspondence with creators, analysts, and editors, public just as all around perceived experts. Diary has more certain reactions and supporters in web-based media as the most recent updates and related oral consideration issues are posted on the regular schedule. This cycle is as yet proceeding and getting more extensive reactions from all through the globe. Our diary is having in excess of 1500 perusers all through the globe and this will be plausible with open access diaries. Significant nations, for example, Japan, United Kingdom, United States, India, Egypt, Pakistan and a lot more are visiting our JOHH space to find out about ebb and flow research works in this specific region. For the impending volume 9 and issue 6 of JOHH, we will give a similar component very much like past 5 issues of ninth volume during the year mid-2021. We will attempt to coin a unique issue inside the extent of diary by taking the important assistance from Editorial group. I might want to thank the workplace carriers for their no-nonsense help to complete another new issue in the volume 9 i.e., Volume 9 issue 6 inside the planned time. We guarantee our perusers that we will give a valiant effort and delivery more volumes and issues with in the interest and proficient regions constantly 2021 separately.
